

University College Dublin
Ireland's Global University

LLM General (One Year Full Time)

Directed at well-qualified graduates in law and related disciplines, this programme promotes reflection on the different aspects of national, European and international Law, with strong opportunities for specialisation in both public and private law dimensions. Leading this analysis and discussion, the faculty members in the UCD Sutherland School of Law have engaged in major research across the various areas of law, ranging from cross-border divorce law, the socio-economic rights of asylum seekers, to the comparative regulation of charities and NGOs.

Graduate exchange programme available

The School affords its students the opportunity to spend a semester abroad as part of the Comparative, International and European Law (CIEL) graduate exchange programme with our partner Universities in Belgium, France, Germany, the Netherlands and Spain.
